Grand Marshall Named for 66 th Annual Tioga Farm Festival - Jamie Eraas

Roger and Georgia Blestrud have been chosen as Grand Marshals of the 66th Annual Tioga Farm Festival. The Blestruds are longtime residents of rural Tioga, and their history with the Farm Festival goes back to the beginning.

“I was in high school when Mr. Arlo Howe, the school Ag teacher, started the Farm Festival. I would bring grain samples to be judged, but was never able to get a ribbon!” Roger stated reminiscing about his first memories with the event. “Georgia and I have enjoyed attending the Farm Festival for many years and taking part in the activities. It’s always a special time of the year when September comes in Tioga.”

As a 1961 graduate of Tioga High School, Roger recalls a favorite memory of Farm Festival weekend that happened just a few years ago. The class of ‘61 held a class reunion during Farm Festival weekend, and many members attended the home football game that Friday night. “Ryan Eraas recognized our class over the P.A. system during the game for being loud and active with our cheering. I have attended many sporting events in Tioga, and that game is one of my favorite memories,” Roger said.

Georgia and Roger’s favorite things about Farm Festival weekend each year include seeing people who return to Tioga who they do not see much during other times of the year. “The parade, guest entertainment, and Sunday church service and meal are always some of our favorite parts of the weekend, “Georgia stated, “and of course eating slices of pie at the Zion Lutheran Church pie booth!” The Blestruds are also looking forward to seeing the new addition to the Tioga Community Center up close for the first time this year as well.

In addition to raising three children (Tana, Derek, and Kya), the Blestruds have been active members of the community. Roger has served on the Tioga Hospital board, as well as numerous committees and boards at Zion Lutheran Church. He was also the Clerk and Treasurer for Bicker Township, north of Tioga, for over 40 years.

Roger and Georgia are honored to be this year’s Grand Marshals, and would like to thank all the people who have served on the Farm Festival committees over the years to help keep this Tioga tradition going for 66 years. Congratulations, Roger and Georgia Blestrud! You are deserving Grand Marshals, and we thank you for all you continue to do for Tioga and its residents.

Dakota Hope Clinic to Host “WORTHY” Banquets Across the Region - Stacey Scott

Dakota Hope Clinic, serving Minot, Tioga, and Bottineau, is inviting the public to its upcoming “WORTHY” Fundraising Banquets — evenings dedicated to celebrating life, hope, and the power of community support. Guests will hear uplifting stories of how lives have been saved and futures transformed through the care and compassion offered at Dakota Hope. Staff members will share firsthand experiences of walking alongside women and couples during some of the most difficult moments of their lives, and how community generosity makes it possible for clients to choose life and discover new possibilities for their future.

The banquet schedule is as follows:

- Minot: Monday, Sept. 15, at the ND State Fair Center
- Tioga: Tuesday, Sept. 16, at the Tioga Community Center
- Bottineau: Monday, Sept. 22, at the Cobblestone Inn

Dakota Hope Clinic offers a safe and confidential place for anyone facing an unexpected pregnancy or parenting challenge. Clients can receive free pregnancy testing and ultrasounds, along with pregnancy and parenting education classes. The clinic also provides resources for post-abortion healing. Since opening in 2013, Dakota Hope has provided support and care to more than 2,500 clients. The Tioga clinic, which opened three years ago, has been especially valuable in reaching families in rural areas who might not otherwise have access to these services.

Organizers say the banquets are not only a time to hear moving stories but also an opportunity to celebrate the difference that community members have made and continue to make through their generosity. All are welcome to attend. RSVPs are requested by Sept. 5 at dakotahope.com/events or by calling 701-852-4675.

Celebrating 40 Years of Service: Susan Wolla

Today, we honor a familiar face at The Bank of Tioga who recently celebrated a remarkable milestone. Susan Wolla, Vice President of Consumer Credit, is commemorating 40 years of dedicated service. We are celebrating this amazing milestone on Tuesday, September 9 at the Tioga lobby from 1:00-3:00 p.m. with a cake and coffee open house. Additionally, The Bank of Tioga will make a $1,000 donation to a charity of Susan's choice. Susan chose to split this gift between two organizations that hold deep personal meaning for her and her family. Her first charity of choice is the Tioga High School Trap League, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting youth shooting sports in Tioga, North Dakota. The league raises funds annually to help cover league costs and purchase essential supplies. After a period of inactivity, it was successfully reorganized in the spring of 2022 and has since experienced steady growth, now proudly supporting 39 student athletes for this season. Her grandson is an active participant, making this a heartfelt contribution that supports both youth and community. The second recipient is the Upper Missouri Bible Camp (also known as Springbrook Bible Camp), located just outside Epping, ND, about 30 minutes from Tioga offers year-round activities for people of all ages. Many of her grandchildren as soon as they’re old enough join in the fun, faith and fellowship every summer, a beautiful generational gift. As a lifelong resident of Tioga, Susan’s connection to The Bank of Tioga began early. After returning from college and marrying her high school sweetheart, she accepted a part-time banker position. Within six months, she transitioned to full-time and has since held numerous roles, with bookkeeping and operations being among her favorites. In a recent interview in the North Dakota Bankers Association, “Banker You Should Know” spotlight, Susan shared reflections on her career and community involvement. Nominated by The Bank of Tioga President Savanna Hendrickson, Susan was praised for her compassion and care for both clients and community members. “I was seeking a career that offered both long-term stability and meaningful professional growth. The Bank of Tioga was a perfect place to build a future, not just for myself but for the community I care about.” Susan’s career progression from the frontline to her current officer-level role is one of her proudest accomplishments. She credits her early experiences giving her a deep understanding of client needs and operational challenges. Banking has transformed over the years yet trust and personal connection remain at the heart of it all, especially for bankers like Susan. Susan is actively involved in the Tioga Chamber of Commerce, enjoys serving meals at community events, and participates in financial wellness programs at local schools. “I hope to lead with excellence and kindness, creating an environment where people feel valued, supported and empowered to do their best work.” Outside of work, Susan cherishes time with her husband Jay, their three adult daughters, and eight grandchildren - all of whom live in the Tioga area.“I find joy in the simple routines of home life - having grandchildren over, doing laundry, watering plants, organizing drawers or just watching the sunset from my patio.” Susan credits mentors in her life for encouraging her to find her voice, trust her instincts and embrace the responsibility of her various roles. When asked how she defines success, Susan shared: “Living with purpose, love and authenticity. Cultivating meaningful relationships, nurturing your well-being and staying true to your values. Courage comes after the first step, not before.” Susan’s story is a testament to the power of dedication, community and heart. Whether it’s mentoring a coworker, supporting a client's financial journey or giving back to causes close to home, Susan Wolla is truly a banker we are all honored to know.
